Landings Credit Union partners with the Federal Home Loan Bank to award $6,000 grants to three local businesses.

Landings Credit Union has partnered with the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco (FHLB) to award three Landings CU business members with a $6,000 grant to help with the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. Landings CU will donate $3,000 with FHLB matching the funds totaling $6,000 to help business members during these difficult times.

“We are proud to partner with the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco to offer grants supporting local Black and minority-owned businesses,” said Brian Lee, President and CEO of Landings Credit Union. “We appreciate everything these businesses continue to do to serve our community during this pandemic and feel honored to support them”.

Landings CU is a financial cooperative built on the foundation of people helping people. It is because of this founding principle that Landings CU continues to partner with businesses like FHLB that share the same desire to advocate for their members and strengthen the communities they serve.
