

Landings Credit Union presents Tempe Community Action Agency (TCAA) with $25,000 grant

As a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank, Landings Credit Union is proud to present a $25,000 grant to Tempe Community Action Agency (TCAA). TCAA's mission is to foster dignity and self-reliance in the economically vulnerable within their communities. Federal Home Loan Bank grants are intended to help boost economic development activity and promote stability and self-sufficiency in communities throughout Arizona, California, and Nevada. Landings Credit Union has submitted 10 grants over the last three years and is thrilled to have been selected to receive $25,000 for TCAA. Landings has a long history in Tempe that dates back more than 65 years and working together with organizations that look to develop and enrich our beloved community will always be a core philosophy.

Pictured from left to right, Susan Cervantez, TCAA Financial Coach, Margaret Hunnicutt, Former Landings Credit Union President/CEO, Deborah Arteaga, President TCAA, Cecilia Estrada Ashe, Landings Credit Union VP/COO and Brian Lee, President/CEO of Landings Credit Union.

About Landings Credit Union

Landings Credit Union, based in Tempe, AZ., serves a wide range of members including students, faculty, staff and family for all schools in the state of Arizona, along with over 400 Select Employee Groups. The current asset size is $167 million with over 14,000 members. Landings Credit Union has been serving members for more than 65 years, helping them with all their financial needs. For more information on Landings Credit Union, please visit landingscu.org