

You have likely received email notifications from organizations and businesses regarding plans to address the growing concerns over corona virus (COVID-19). We realize that the constantly evolving situation is creating uncertainty for many in our community.

Above all else, we assure you that the health and safety of our Credit Union members and employees is our greatest priority. The Credit Union has plans in place to deal with events such as this. We have been meeting regularly and are prepared to handle developments that could impact our individual members and our entire Credit Union family.

We are following the latest information and directives received from governmental and non-governmental agencies. We do encourage our employees and members follow all the recommendations of the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) as well as local health and government officials in the adoption of best practices in preventing the spread of any illness.
